1. Doston said that he was going to the UK that day
2. Speak about Independence day of Uzbekistan.

The anniversary of the independence of Uzbekistan, which we celebrate on September 1, is a holiday. But there are other dates which are holidays in Uzbekistan. On December 8 we celebrate Constitution Day. We celebrate New Year's Day on January 1. Before New Year's Day we send New Year wishes to our friends, or we ring them up in the evening on December 31, New Year's Eve. On that night we are usually at home with our family or with some friends. At 12 o'clock we say to each other, "Happy New Year!" and we answer, "Thanks, the same to you." We give presents to members of our family, and we have a New Year tree with lights and decorations. There are two Muslim holidays, Ramadan Hayt and Kurbon Hayt. The dates of these holidays change every year. March 8 is Women's Day. On that day we give presents to our mothers and sisters. The most common present for women is flowers, and on Women's Day many men buy flowers to give to their mothers and wives. March 21 is the spring festival of Navruz, which people celebrate with flowers, dancing, music and traditional foods. Among the most important of the foods is sumalak, a dish made from boiled wheat sprouts.

1. Complete the sentence.
If you go to the cinema tomorrow, there will be an interesting movie.
2. What do you know about traditions of different nations.

Every nation has its own customs and long-lived traditions. There is a great number of exciting events which take place in every country Traditions play a more important role in the life of the people. I think if we keep up our traditions, we preserve national history and culture. ... Different families have different traditions of celebrations.

What is a tradition? Probably, traditions are a way of defining who people are. Traditions are something that people keep doing for a long time and join different generations together. That's why traditions are very important in any country. Everyone is different and every country is different. We cannot expect the rest of the world to live a life that is similar to ours. When we hear stories of how people do things differently than us, it might be a culture shock but it's just the way things are done by others. For instance, giving a yellow rose is considered a sign of friendship in some cultures whereas in places like Iran and Mexico, it has a negative meaning since it is associated with funerals. ... The practice of washing one's behind is practiced differently throughout the world. For first time travelers, it might come as a surprise when there is no toilet paper in the hotel bathroom, instead, a bucket is left for visitors to use. This might seem unusual but the practice of using water is followed by many countries for various reasons
