2. Speak on the theme “Communications”.

Communication is the relation that involves interaction between two participants. The word communication is a Latin word that means to share. It is the transfer of information, ideas that can be conducted in different ways. Among the three components of communication, the sender is the most involved person.

The sender has the whole idea of the matter that is to be delivered. The receiver does not know about the sender and the subject of the sender’s information. Communication can be a one-way or a two-way process. Communication serves as a way or means for connecting people and places. It has expanded to relate to diverse perspectives.

Communications can be formal as well as informal. Formal communications are meant to establish substantial works in the business sector and work out business relationships or work relationships. Informal communication may hold various emotions and personal feelings. Communication carried out by different people highly depends on an individual’s speaking and writing capability. Superior communication skills pave the way for success.

2-BILET

1. Write the job with the suffix -ist.

She works with animals and plants. She’s a biologist.

2. How did Internet change our life?

The Internet has turned our existence upside down. It has revolutionized communications, to the extent that it is now our preferred medium of everyday communication. In almost everything we do, we use the Internet. Ordering a pizza, buying a television, sharing a moment with a friend, sending a picture over instant messaging. Before the Internet, if you wanted to keep up with the news, you had to walk down to the newsstand when it opened in the morning and buy a local edition reporting what had happened the previous day. But today a click or two is enough to read your local paper and any news source from anywhere in the world, updated up to the minute.

3-BILET

1. Complete the sentence.

The girl who is coming along the street is from my class.

2. Speak on the theme “My future profession”.

I think that my future profession will be closely connected with computers. I am capable to work with them, and I also possess the qualities needed in this work. They are accuracy, energy, carefulness. But I hesitate if I have enough patience. I must develop it if I want to become a computer operator. I know that it would be better to choose a profession of an interpreter or any other occupation connected with Russian and literature because I am good at these subjects but when I began to study the computer skills that was what I have been looking for. In our modern world it's hard to do without computers.

They are needed everywhere, and I hope that my interests in this subject will never change inspite of any circumstances.
